SOUL & INK POP-UP CAMP

During Spring Break 2018, CHACC opened its doors to Soul & Ink: A Live Screen Printing Experience, a mobile screen printing company led by husband and wife design team, Frankie and Sherry Meneses. Participants of all ages were excited to create their own designs and put them on t-shirts + posters.

Our mission resonates with Soul & Ink - both of us making efforts to make art accessible to anyone, regardless of their background. The two day camp offered the opportunity for young artists to learn the basics of design and pave the way for them to share their vision with the world.

Stay tuned for more collaborations like this! We will continue to work on bringing projects and new ways of expression to our communities.

PAINTA DAY 2018

Painta Day , a free, small art festival, will not only celebrate and provide a retrospective look of Shawn Lindsay's work and evolution as an artist thus far, but it will also highlight and provide a platform for local thriving artists just like Painta.

The day-long event, scheduled for April 14th, has a purpose to promote the notion of, "living with purpose on purpose," which Painta strives to live and work by daily.

BRANDSTAMP

LOGO DESIGN + HEAT PRESSING

Since the start of the new year, CHACC has been very active in assisting local entrepreneurs with building a strong visual presence with their brand.

Soufside Creative presents: BRAND STAMP, challenges ARTrepreneurs to invest a full day in their brands and businesses. In the workshop you learn how to brand yourself through promotional gear you create:

- *Make brand logo using Adobe illustrator
- *Operate Expert 24 cutter + Cricut Silhouette Cameo
- *Heat press to apply vinyl transfer to garments
- *Learn to shoot photos for social media + marketing.

The every Saturday workshop took a break for the months of February and March, in order to highlight the students and brands that have participated so far. Hear from actual 'Brand Stamp' students and let them tell you firsthand what the class has done for them!

For testimonials and the returning schedule visit our website at www.chacc.org/brandstamp.
